TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Rev. Anna Shaw one of the most noted orators in the world will speak in Odd Fellows' Hall tonight. Admission free.

Visiting His Old Haunts.—H. T. Findlay, at one time an under-study in this city for John D. Rockefeller and incidentally in the oil way, but now an embryo apple-king down around Medford, is in the city reviewing the scenes of his old-time piracy and greeting old friends. He is happy and sanguine in his pursuit and everyone in this man's town wishes him the fullest realization of all his "fruitful" dreams. He's a peach, anyway!

Hotel Irving—European plan. The only steam-heated hotel in Astoria; large and airy rooms; prices from 50 cents to $1.50; well prepared and daintily served meals at 25 cents. Special rates per week or month for room and board to permanent guests. Our bus meets all trains and steamboats.

Fell Dead Yesterday.—Intelligence reached this city yesterday, from Dr. W. T. Phy, superintendent of the Hot Lake sanitarium, that Charles E. Campbell, of this city, had dropped dead in the rotunda of the hotel there yesterday morning. Exalted Ruler G. C. Fulton, of the local lodge, B. P. O. E. immediately wired directions to have the remains shipped to this city, and on their arrival the funeral obsequies will be provided for under the auspices of that organization. Mr. Campbell was well known here and has many friends who will regret to hear of his sudden demise.

From This Day On.—The Fair Eastern Millinery store will place its entire elegant stock of dress and street hats and all dainty accessories, before its customers, today, upon a basis of liberal discount from recent prevailing prices. This concession will continue indefinitely, and ladies should avail themselves of the pronounced cut. 5-6-tf.

Come to Odd Fellows' Hall tonight to the free lecture given by Rev. Anna Shaw.

JOHNSON BROS.

GOOD GOODS. 118-122 Twelfth St. Astoria, Ore.

Jail Material.—A big carload of jail materials arrived on the "A. & C." railroad from the east last night, destined for the Tillamook county jail, now in course of erection. The stuff will go forward to that city on the Sue H. Elmore tomorrow morning.

Just A Couple.—Two deeds went to the public records of Clatsop county yesterday, to-wit: Frank McCann and wife to David Hansen, warranty, $1,200, lots 15, 16, 17, 18, and 19, block 6, Taylor's Astoria; David West and wife to School District No. 7, warranty, $1, conveying one acre of land to Clatsop county for school purposes.

Be sure and hear Rev. Anna Shaw tonight at Odd Fellows Hall.

Will Come In Time.—It is getting on toward three years since the Lewis & Clark bridge was finished and yet the road to Warrenton is not planked. It is a burden to very many people and the sooner it is put in passable shape the better it will be for the commerce and comfort of the county.

Not Wanted Here.—The Albert L. Brown who was discharged from Sing Sing prison on Wednesday last, is not wanted in this city nor county on any criminal process whatever, though it is known that he humbugged a few people hereabout, some years ago, when he was building skidoo railroads and posing as J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., etc. etc.

Just For Example.—While the common council is making the proper and necessary move to clear the streets and alleys and back yards of the stuff that cumbars them and makes them unsightly, it might not be a bad idea for some of those who are in that body to remove the piles of wood that are hampering the thoroughfares in their neighborhood. It would be an example worth setting and following "saucy" for the goose is sauce for the gander" when it comes to a clean up.

On A beastly Charge.—John Taylor Coffee, of Sevenson, appeared yesterday in the court of Justice Goodman, here on a charge of incest, preferred by his son-in-law, Charles Knudsen, whose wife Eva, is the alleged victim of the terrible offense against law and humanity. He was duly arraigned and placed under bonds of $1,000 for his appearance in court on Saturday next at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The character of the testimony is said to be bestial in the extreme. Last night the prisoner was released on the required bond being given by his two brothers.

Second Big Order.—The Astoria Iron Works received a heavy order yesterday from Libby, McNally & Libby, of Chicago, for the second lot of machines for double-ending and squeezing cans, similar to the first made and shipped to this big firm of packers. The number of machines in the present bill is three, and the order is worth in the neighborhood of $5,000. The machines are very valuable and rapid workers and will do up about seventy cans per minute, and are rated as among the finest and quickest devices in the labor-saving mechanisms of the day.

Moving McClure School.—A meeting of the board of directors of the Astoria school district was held yesterday afternoon to consider the matter of the immediate removal of the McClure school building and its revampment on ground that is not shifting. It is proposed to move it fifty-two feet to the westward and twelve feet to the southward, on the lot now occupied, and the board will call a mass-meeting of the district citizens, for next Tuesday evening, at the Shively school building, to confer and agree upon the plans and arrange for the scope of the movement and its cost, as it will involve a large expenditure. The board also passed an order requiring all applicants for positions as teachers, to file their requests for full assignments, at the earliest date possible.

A rare treat—Tonight at Odd Fellows' Hall, Rev. Anna Shaw will speak on Equal Suffrage.

Entertains.—Miss Grace Leahy gave a delightful party Wednesday evening to a number of her friends at her home at 406 18th street.

Book Wanted.—Anyone who may have books, magazines or papers to give to the Seamen's Friend Society, may leave them at Paulsen's fish market, where the Chaplain will get them to distribute among the vessels and fish stations.

Meet Tonight.—The Board of Directors of the Seamen's Friend Society will meet tonight in the Central Hotel. Every member is requested to be present, as matters of great importance will be deliberated on.

Delegates to Grand Court.—The delegates to the grand court of the order of Foresters of America, which meets in Condon next Tuesday, from the Astoria lodge are E. P. Linenweber, and Robert McClean, Grand Trustee Andrew Dalgity, and Deputy Supreme Ranger Al. Schroeder, will also be in attendance.

Investigate Telephone Franchise.—On Sunday the Mayor and members of the city have arranged to go to Portland and investigate the franchise granted the automatic telephone company by that city with a view of gaining a better idea of drawing up one that will be suitable for this city. The fire department, and the manner of street improvements in Portland will also be looked into.

Quieted Down The Trouble.—In a big ravine back of the big Tongue Point lumbering mills there are quartered a lot of foreigners who are employed in and about the mills in various capacities, and they are made up of all the far easterners from Italy, Mexico and other suburban countries and are prolific of scraps on short notice. Wednesday night there was a row of great proportions started up in the hollow and the uproar sent Manager Hume and one of his assistants to the scene of conflict in a hurry. They found the place in an angry turmoil and one man cut in the scrimmage, and later the authorities at the city hall and the court house were notified of the pending war and a couple of officers went up and made an investigation but did not succeed in finding the leaders nor those responsible for the cutting of the injured man; and at last accounts the whole thing had simmered down and was in status quo, at least for the time being.

On Serious Charge.—Sheriff Thomas Linville returned last night from Kalama, where he went to secure some stolen goods, which were taken from Kelly's Logging camp some time ago, and for which men the sheriff has had out descriptive circulars. The sheriff secured the goods, which were found on the two men arrested for holding up a man near Kalama Tuesday night. The goods recovered consisted of 15 loggers shoes, a rifle, and seven suits of underwear. The men were examined at Kalama yesterday and held on a charge of highway robbery. It seems the men hired an old man to haul the stolen goods from Ladoux's Landing to Kalama, and after he had done so at the point of a revolver, held him up and took a watch and $8.00 from him. The case is a clear one against the men, and they will probably have a chance to serve time.

WHO SAYS SO?

The whole eating world of Astoria says so! Says what? Why, that the only place in the city for a genuine, square, well-cooked, comfortable, meal, at a modest cost, is the Palace Restaurant, on Commercial street opposite the Page Block. The statement is so general and generous that to doubt it is folly and to believe it and profit by it, the best of good judgment in the eating line. The proof o' the pudding is in the eating o' it."

Will Arrive Saturday.—Captain Edith Jenkins and Captain Elizabeth Harris of provincial headquarters, will arrive here Saturday from Portland, and take a leading part in the meetings which will occur in the Salvation army hall at Eighth and Commercial on Saturday and Sunday. Both are talented speakers, and it will be well worth your time to hear them. The meetings on Sunday will occur at 11 a. m., 3 p. m., and 8 p. m., and everyone is cordially invited to be present. 5-10-4t.

Growing Aches and Pains. Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Tex., writes, April 15, 1902. "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00.
